ま MAMORU
Follow the Rules

Make rules with your parents about how long you can play games online and how much you can spend on them, and keep them.

With "OZENOKAMISAMA", let's protect our children from cyber crimes!

Child pornography victim

Do not Send Your Photos.

- Don't trust anyone who wants your photos !
- Once a photo is posted online, it can never be recovered. It spreads and stays in cyberspace forever.
- When you have trouble saying NO or ignoring him/her, talk to your parents.

Victim of obscenity

Do not Meet a Stranger.

- It is extremely dangerous to go and see someone you knew online. There have been an increasing number of people who are getting into trouble.
- It is not safe to "assume" you are different from others and trust someone you met online.

Stalker victim

Never Post Personal Information Online.

- There are people who can identify your personal information from the messages and photos you post online and misuse them.
- Never send/post your photos to the public or anyone easily without thinking about the consequences.

Cyber bullying is also a crime!

Do not Speak Evil of Anyone Online.

- Posting slanders and threats can be charged as defamation, threats, or extortion. Do not post comments that may hurt others.
- It is also a crime to post "I planted a bomb at school."

Install a filtering system to protect your children!

Stay Away from Hazardous Sites

- Cyberspace is full of harmful and dangerous information for children.
- Install a filtering system to protect your children.
- By law, cellphones/smartphones to be used by someone under 18 must have a filtering system.

It is also a crime when a child solicits a date online.

Never Go Online Just To Meet Someone.

- It is illegal for a child to solicit a date online.
- There are people who are evil and try to seduce children online. Cyberspace is not a good place to meet someone.

Gaming disorder

Follow the Rules

- We see a growing number of cases in which children get preoccupied with online app and games and suffer from setbacks, including poor health, poor grades, spending a large sum of money gambling online.
- Parents are strongly advised to make rules on how long, how much, and where your children can spare for online games and monitor them.
